

Profile

Pia Marie Seltmann is a Research Associate in Department II.6 - International Police Relations. In the department, she works on measure evaluation in security sector reforms (SSR).

Pia Seltmann completed her master degree in Arabic and Islamic Studies at the University of Münster in 2020. Her research specializes in historical multi-perspective approaches in Islamic societies with a colonial past along with intercultural awareness. During her studies, she worked at the Federal Agency for Civic Education in coordinating an Arab partner network of Civic Education. Most recently, she worked as a project coordinator at the Federal Agency for Civic Education.

Academic Background

1 – 12.2023: Researcher in the project “Process Evaluation of the German Train and Equip Program for Foreign Police Forces” (PROEVAL 2023)

Since 6.2022: Evaluator in the project “Joint Strategic Evaluation of the Civilian Engagement of the German Federal Government in Afghanistan”, sub-project “Strategic 2 Evaluation of the Engagement of the Federal Ministry of the Interior and Community in Afghanistan”

1 – 12.2022: Researcher in the research project “Process Evaluation of the German Train and Equip Program for Foreign Police Forces” (PROEVAL 2022)

8 – 12.2021: Researcher in the research project “Ex Ante- and Process Evaluation of the German Train and Equip Program for Foreign Police Forces” (EXPEV AAH-P 2021)

10.2016 – 12.2020: M.A. Arabic Language and Islamic Studies – Westfälische Wilhelms-Universität Münster

07.2018 – 11.2018: Several months Arabic language program in Tunis, Tunisia – Wissem Language Institute

10.2013 – 09.2016: Double-subject B.A. Islamic Studies/Middle Eastern Languages and German Studies – Rheinische Friedrich-Wilhelms-Universität Bonn